

Psalm 6

vers. W. W. J. VanOene, 1972

7 7 6. 7 7 6
Aeolian

Genevan Psalter, 1542
harm. Claude Goudimel, 1564

1. Chide me, O LORD, no long - er, Nor chas - ten
2. My soul is trou - bled great - ly. O has - ten
3. How can the dead a - dore Thee Or bring their
4. All night, in - stead of sleep - ing, I drench my
5. De - part from me, trans - gres - sors. Flee now, all
6. The LORD heard when I plead - ed And my ap - me in an - ger. In mer - cy hear my groans; Thou to aid me. Why dost Thou tar - ry, LORD?

thanks be - fore Thee, Or praise Thy ho - ly Name?
couch with weep - ing. With grief my eyes grow weak,
you op - pres - sors: The LORD did heed my cry!
peals He heed - ed. My foes shall be a - shamed,

O LORD, see how I lan - guish. Heal Thou Turn back and show Thy fa - vor; Me in I'm wea - ry with my moan - ing, Worn out Since foes with hate sur - round me And with -
He heard my sup - pli - ca - tion, My plea -
For sud - den fear shall shake them, And pan -

my bit - ter an - guish, For trou - bled are my bones.
Thy love de - li - ver, Ac - cord - ing to Thy word!
with con - stant groan - ing And o - ver - come with shame.
out ceas - ing hound me; My ru - in they all seek.
for con - so - la - tion, And with His help is nigh.
ic o - ver - take them. Their doom has He pro - claimed.