

In God I Take My Refuge. Why Then Say You

Based on Psalm 11

1. In God I take my ref-uge. Why then say you, "Flee like a bird that
2. The LORD does from His ho - ly tem - ple see this, And from His throne He to the moun-tains wings. For, lo, the wick - ed bend the bow to slay you;

judg - es wrong and right; All men will hear then what His just de-cree is.

They fit their sharp-ened ar - rows to the strings; They shoot in se - cret God hates those who in vi - o - lence de - light. Their lot is storm and those who right-ness cher-ish. What can the right-eous who to jus-tice clings brim-stone fier - cely burn-ing. The right-eous LORD shall fa - vor the up - right;

Still do if the foun - da - tions fall and per - ish?"
They shall see Him for whom their heart is yearn - ing.